Henry Family History

These photographs were taken by three brothers, Hugh S., Donald L., and Robert L. Henry during their time at Purdue University from 1936-1939. Hugh worked at the Purdue Memorial Union building cafeteria. All of the brothers were involved in the ROTC at Purdue and lived in the Agriculture Co-Op.

Collection Description

Scope

The Henry family photographs (1936-1939; 01. cubic feet) are small black & white photographs that depict life on the Purdue campus when the Henry brothers worked and attended school there. Many images are of their friends and co-workers, but are unidentified.

Arrangement

The photographs are loosely in chronological order since only three photographs have been specifically dated and identified by the creators.

Descriptive Rules Describing Archives: A Content Standard
