History of Purdue University Fraternities and Sororities

In 1875 Sigma Chi became the first fraternity chapter at Purdue University. Most growth in chapters and membership occurred between 1905 and 1960, and the community continues to grow today.

Purdue University is home to one of the largest fraternity and sorority communities in the country. The Interfraternity Council governs 41 traditional men's fraternities at Purdue. The Multicultural Greek Council governs 11 multicultural fraternities and sororities. The National Pan-Hellenic Council governs 9 historically African-American fraternities and sororities at Purdue. The Panhellenic Association governs 20 traditional women's fraternities and sororities.

Several of Purdue's most distinguished graduates are members of fraternities and sororities. See: http://www.purduegreeks.com/#\_p.About%2FHistory%20of%20Purdue%20Greeks

Collection Description

Scope

The Purdue University Fraternities and Sororities collection (1885-2008; 2.8 cubic feet) documents the history and activities of the fraternities and sororities at Purdue. Contained in the collection are numerous fraternity and sorority newsletters and magazines. There are some records provided by the Dean of Students Office in 1995 and include correspondence and financial information sheets. Among the other material in the collection are petitions for membership, constitutions and by-laws, membership directories and other historical information.

The general information includes rush rules from 1937 – circa 2000s, Interfraternity and Panhellenic rush booklets, the constitution of the Interfraternity Council from 1967, telephone directories from the early 2000s, issues of the Purdue University Greek Publication, “The Greekvine,” and several sorority recruitment guides.

Types of materials include: brochures, clippings, correspondence, directories, guidebooks, historical documents, magazines, newsletters, pamphlets, photographs of members, programs from various activities and records.

Boxes 1 and 2 are arranged alphabetically by fraternity and sorority, with material arranged chronologically within the folders.

Box 3 contains general fraternity and sorority information and is arranged chronologically.

Box 4 holds two scrapbooks and a ledger with minutes; a 1910, Phi Kappa Psi scrapbook provided by Purdue alum, P.J. McAllister; a bound volume of minutes for Kappa Phi Sigma, 1922-1932 and a history of the Kappa Chapter of Alpha Kappa Lambda, 1934-1984. The Kappa Chapter history also contains letters from alumni which provide a glimpse into their time as Purdue students and beyond.

Boxes 5 and 6 contain Interfraternity Council information and Fraternity rush and new member guides.

Box 7 contains Panhellenic rush information, recruitment guides, newsletters and miscellaneous clippings,
